Autumn Rivulets

(2019)

Duration: 26 minutes

Program Note:

Jointly commissioned by the Quad City Symphony Orchestra and its music director Mark Russell Smith and the Indiana University School of Music and Dean Gwyn Richards through the “Decade of Commissions” initiative, Autumn Rivulets, for soprano and orchestra, was composed in celebration of Walt Whitman’s 200th birthday in 2019 and of the bicentennial of the founding of Indiana University in 2020.

Autumn Rivulets sets three streams (or rivulets) of text, autumnal in tone, reflecting on life, death and truth: Walt Whitman’s “As Consequent, etc.” from Leaves of Grass (Book XXIV: Autumn Rivulets); Dylan Thomas’s “Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night”; and some brief quotations about “truth” by John Keats, Mark Twain, St. Augustine, Batman, Rudy Giuliani, and IU’s own Thomas Gieryn.

The composition has an arching wave-like formal design. Whitman begins and ends the work, but along the way alternates stanzas with Thomas and the “truth” quotes. The Whitman sections often suggest the water imagery of the text, with drifting currents and waves reflected in the gestures, harmony and rhythms; while mostly a calm traversal of America, the “currents” build toward “the storm’s abysmic waves, ...Raging over the vast,...” before ending with gently lapping waves gradually disappearing... “Wash’d on America’s shores.”

The “truth” quotes are presented as two moments of repose in the piece, and perhaps somehow bridge the Whitman and Thomas texts a bit. A third stream seemed necessary to make the combination work.

While the Whitman is grand and universal in tone and perspective, the Thomas is utterly personal and wrenching. I am sure we all have our own thoughts and feelings about the famous poem Dylan Thomas wrote for his dying father. My mother died in January 2019 at home in Portland; that day I was composing the Whitman section for “Some half-hid in Oregon.” My father is in good health, but is in his 80s; I certainly hope he will “rage against the dying of the light” for years to come.

Autumn Rivulets is dedicated to my parents, Dale and Edith Dzubay.

TEXTS

Walt Whitman (1819-1892)
Leaves of Grass
Book XXIV: Autumn Rivulets
As Consequent, Etc. (1881)

*As consequent from store of summer rains,
Or wayward rivulets in autumn flowing,
Or many a herb-lined brook's reticulations,
Or subterranean sea-rills making for the sea,
Songs of continued years I sing.*

*Life's ever-modern rapids first, (soon, soon to blend,
With the old streams of death.)*

*Some threading Ohio's farm-fields or the woods,
Some down Colorado's canons from sources of perpetual snow,
Some half-hid in Oregon, or away southward in Texas,
Some in the north finding their way to Erie, Niagara, Ottawa,
Some to Atlantica's bays, and so to the great salt brine.*

[In you whoe'er you are my book perusing.]
*In I myself, in all the world, these currents flowing,
All, all toward the mystic ocean tending.*

*Currents for starting a continent new,
Overtures sent to the solid out of the liquid,
Fusion of ocean and land, tender and pensive waves,
(Not safe and peaceful only, waves rous'd and ominous too,
Out of the depths the storm's abysmic waves, who knows whence?
Raging over the vast, with many a broken spar and tatter'd sail.)*

*Or from the sea of Time, collecting vasting all, I bring,
A windrow-drift of weeds and shells.*

*O little shells, so curious-convolute, so limpid-cold and voiceless,
Will you not little shells to the tympans of temples held,
Murmurs and echoes still call up, eternity's music faint and far,
Wafted inland, sent from Atlantica's rim, strains for the soul of the prairies,
Whisper'd reverberations, chords for the ear of the West joyously sounding,
Your tidings old, yet ever new and untranslatable,
Infinitesimals out of my life, and many a life,
(For not my life and years alone I give—all, all I give,)
These waifs from the deep, cast high and dry,
Wash'd on America's shores?*

Dylan Thomas (1914-1953)
Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night (1947)

*Do not go gentle into that good night,
Old age should burn and rave at close of day;
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.*

*Though wise men at their end know dark is right,
Because their words had forked no lightning they
Do not go gentle into that good night.*

*Good men, the last wave by, crying how bright
Their frail deeds might have danced in a green bay,
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.*

*Wild men who caught and sang the sun in flight,
And learn, too late, they grieved it on its way,
Do not go gentle into that good night.*

Truth is beauty (John Keats)
(Truth) is stranger than fiction (Mark Twain)
Truth is also a place (Thomas Gieryn)

*Grave men, near death, who see with blinding sight
Blind eyes could blaze like meteors and be gay,
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.*

*And you, my father, there on the sad height,
Curse, bless me now with your fierce tears, I pray.
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.*

Truth is like a lion (St. Augustine)
Truth isn't good enough (Batman)
[Truth] isn't truth (Rudy Giuliani)
No Truth-spot is forever (Thomas Gieryn)

Introduction

$\text{♩} = 48$ delicate; trickles of glistening water

The musical score consists of two main sections: 'Introduction' and the main piece. The introduction section, marked $\text{♩} = 48$ delicate; trickles of glistening water, features mostly sustained notes across all staves. The main piece begins with a more complex arrangement involving multiple percussion instruments (Percussion 1-4, Timpani) and various string instruments (Violin 1, Violin 2, Viola, Cello, Contrabass). The score includes numerous dynamic markings such as ppp , pp , p , mp , mf , and f . Performance instructions like 'Glock. soft mallets (muted, distant sound)', 'l.v. sempre', 'improvise in similar fashion, same register', and 'dim. poco a poco' are also present. The score is written in 3/4 time and includes a copyright notice at the bottom: © Copyright 2019 Pro Nova Music (BMI). Bloomington, IN. USA. All rights reserved. http://ProNovaMusic.com
