TEXTS:

I.

o purple finch
please tell me why
this summer world (and you who i who love to live)
must die

if i should tell you anything (that eagerly sweet carolling self answers me)
"i could not sing"

II.

who are you, little i

(five or six years old) peering from some high window; at the gold

of november sunset

(and feeling: that if day
has to become night

this is a beautiful way)

III.

One winter afternoon (at the magical hour
when is becomes if)
a bespangled clown
standing on eighth street
handed me a flower.
Nobody, it's safe to say, observed him but myself; and why? because without any doubt he was whatever (first and last) most people fear most:
a mystery for which i've no word except alive
— that is, completely alert
and miraculously whole;
with not merely a mind and a heart but unquestionably a soul-
by no means funereally hilarious (or otherwise democratic) but essentially poetic
or etherally serious:
a fine not a coarse clown (no mob, but a person)
and while never saying a word who was anything but dumb;
since the silence of him self sang like a bird.
Most people have been heard screaming for international measures that render hell rational — i thank heaven somebody's crazy enough to give me a daisy

IV.

WE_WE_WE
& to hell with the chappy
who doesn't agree

(if you can't dentham
comma bentham;
or 1 law for the lions & oxen is science)
